DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The specification on page 3, line 25, page 4, line 13 and page 6, line 26 clearly states "consisting of" when describing the monomers of ingredient (B) and the blend of compounds (D). Broadening the limitations to "comprising" without having antecedent basis is new matter.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

5. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Shibuya et al. 6,417,319, in view of Eckel et al. 5,762,645.

6. Shibuya et al. disclose polycarbonate, graft copolymer, phosphoric ester and PTFE in claim 1, shaped article in claim 7 and the blend of monomeric and oligomeric phosphoric esters from column 14, line 45, to column 17, line 34. Eckel et al. teach that in a similar formulation the ratio of monomeric and oligomeric phosphate is 10-90 to 90-10 (claim 1) and that the ratio of styrene to rubber to (meth)acrylate or (meth)acrylonitrile is 50-95, 5-95 and 5-50 (see column 5, lines 38-54). "X" in Formula (II) of Eckel et al. means a mono- or polycyclic aromatic residue with 6 to 30 C atoms. It would be obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to use the ratios of Eckel et al. in the composition of Shibuya et al., since these are the customary ratios and the phosphate combination yields synergistic effects.
